

Westway Homes Partners with MDS Funding in Residential Projects at Mesa Del Sol

Partnership Between Steven B. Chavez of MDS Funding and Michael Fietz of Westway Homes Will Establish a Cohesive Vision Between Commercial and Residential Growth at Mesa Del Sol

Albuquerque, NM – July 10, 2018 – MDS Funding, LLC today announced an integral partnership with Westway Homes in a new venture involving the resurgence of residential development at Mesa Del Sol to begin immediately with the groundbreaking of 13 new homes including a new model home expected to be complete by this fall in time for the Parade of Homes. This new partnership will lead to the development of additional residential projects expected to come to fruition by the end of the quarter and will coincide with upcoming commercial & industrial endeavors.

“As the only active residential builder at Mesa del Sol, I am excited to partner with Steve Chavez and continue to build on the vision of this safe, smart, sustainable community,” stated Michael Fietz, Founder of Westway Homes and President of the Home Builders Association of Central New Mexico. “The Westway brand is one of strength and forward motion focused on the future homeowner while setting the residential standard for how future homes are built in the premiere community of Albuquerque at Mesa del Sol.”

“Westway Homes is in a fortuitous position to build within this master-planned community providing specialized residential development expertise having personally been involved with more than a quarter of the homes built at Mesa del Sol,” says John Rivera, Westway Homes Head of Construction. “As a home builder, we have the rare opportunity to bring back the soul to Mesa del Sol.”

In this next phase, Westway Homes will build single and multi-level homes ranging from approximately 1,500 to 2,500 sqft in an urban contemporary style that fits the building envelope using efficient methods to maximize the space available.

About Westway Homes

Westway Homes, Building a Better Way, was started in Albuquerque and Las Cruces, NM in December 2017 by Founder Michael Fietz who brings 18 years of industry experience ranging from financing to residential home construction and development. Westway Homes designs and builds superior, high-quality new homes in thriving, highly desirable communities because of their belief that where and how their customers live is what truly matters. Westway Homes is differentiated because of the fresh home designs that can be built in sought after locations while still offering modifications unlike national builder counterparts. Westway Homes partners with skilled, local craftsmen so that unique, new homes deliver the design and workmanship you crave. It's the Westway. Go ahead, live without compromise and live a better way.
